Boy Accidentally Killed Brother.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Roanoke, Va., July 11.—Word reached here this evening from the lower Catawba Valley section of this county, of the killing of Frank Bennett, aged twenty years, by his brother, John, aged eighteen. The younger brother was shooting at a groundhog when Frank got in the range of the rifle, and was shot dead. John Bennett is exonerated of all blame. He is almost crazy from grief.

Johnson Tells of Blow Which Won the Fight.
Negro Champion Received by Thousands of Race on Arrival in New York.
New York, July 11.—"I won," said Jack Johnson this afternoon, as he paused to show the famous gold roof, while the crowd that filled the vaudeville theatre, where he made his first public appearance since the fight at Reno with Jim Jeffries, cheered and stamped. "I won, and all I can say is that it is my purpose to defend my title against all comers."

"As I told this audience before the fight, I believed I was the best man I made up my mind to fight a fair, honest fight, and I believe the pictures will show that I did. If Mr. Jeffries had been the best man, and whipped me, I would have gone to his corner and tipped my hat to him and offered him my hand. As it was, I won."

Johnson received a number of newspaper men. They asked him why he had sold out his share in the moving pictures of the fight.
"Well," said Johnson, "you see, it's like this: you always see the man who patents lose his money. If I had kept my interest, I would have had to employ a large number of men to look after my interests. As it was, I got $50,000, and a little bonus of $10,000 or $12,000 for my interest."

"Now if I had kept my share of the pictures, by the time the other twenty-five or thirty of us had got through cheating one another, I doubt if there would have been that much money left for me."

"So long as they were willing to manage it, and give me the money, I was perfectly willing to get out of it. Somebody asked Johnson what blow he thought won him the fight.
"I think," he answered, "it was the blow that closed Jeffries's right eye."

No Riots During Day.
There were no riots during the day, either in the streets or the theatre where Johnson appeared. The only serious disorder of the day, bearing in any way on the fight, occurred in a small Broadway theatre, where a crowd gathered to see pictures "taken

Ben Loyall Wins After Hard Drive
In Glen Cove Handicap Favorite Leads by a Head.
Empire City Race Track, N. Y., July 11.—Ben Loyall, 4 to 5 favorite, won the Glen Cove handicap at six furlongs here to-day, but only after a hard drive. Barley Thorpe was the pace-maker to the turn, where Ben Loyall moved up into the lead and looked like an easy winner, but in the last 100 yards Pauntleroy came with a rush and forced Garner to a drive to win by a head. Summary:
First race—maiden, two-year-olds, 5 to 2 first, Ben Alvarescot. (8 to 1) second, Rosimiro (6 to 1) third, Time, 1:09.
Second race—three-year-olds and up, $400 added, six furlongs—Jeanne D'Arc (5 to 2) first, Ben Alvarescot. (8 to 1) second, Rosimiro (6 to 1) third, Time, 1:13.
Third race—three-year-olds, selling, $500 added, one mile and twenty yards—Noon (8 to 1) first, Harvey F. (6 to 1) second, Bang (7 to 1) third, Time, 1:45.
Fourth race—the Glen Cove handicap, $1,500, three-year-olds, six furlongs—Ben Loyall (4 to 5) first, Pauntleroy (18 to 5) second, Barley Thorpe (11 to 5) third, Time, 1:13 1-5.
Fifth race—two-year-olds, $400 added, five furlongs—Mr. Golightly (13 to 10) first, Rogon (16 to 5) second, Amalfi (7 to 1) third, Time, 1:07.
Sixth race—selling, three-year-olds and up, $500 added, one and a quarter miles—Montgomery (7 to 10) first, Perry Johnson (7 to 2) second, Bad News (30 to 1) third, Time, 2:07 3-5.

Can't Show in Frisco.
San Francisco, Cal., July 11.—The Municipal Board of Censors to-day adopted a resolution instructing the chief of police not to permit the exhibition of the Jeffries and Johnson fight pictures in San Francisco. A similar resolution referring to prize fight pictures in general was adopted.
The action of the Board of Censors followed receipt of a letter from Mayor McCarthy advising that this course be taken.

Heavy Movement of Fruit.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Lynchburg, Va., July 11.—The Southern Railway is in the midst of moving a heavy Georgia peach crop, and the crop is beginning to move rapidly. Yesterday there were fifteen trains from Washington through here, all of them being made up of refrigerator cars, and all of them being operated on passenger train schedules.

Some Baseball Talk

By HALF NELSON.

Bobby Vail's hard luck stuck to him yesterday when Richmond cleaned up yesterday by the score of 4 to 1. Vail has been the victim of bad luck for some time, and he is now in a position that hangs about him whenever he stacks up against Lawlor's men, and it seems that he will continue to complain. His game yesterday was as strong as it has been, and the defeat can be laid largely at the feet of the Colts.

Petersburg, by the way, has got to improve the car service and the park if the club is to be a success financially. A single track car line leads to the park, and the park is a long way from Petersburg. On the opening day it took the spectators about forty-five minutes to get to the game. The diamond is almost in as bad condition as that in the Broad Street Park.

Manager Lawlor has half a dozen men on the string to strengthen the Richmond team and expects to land a batter that can be depended on with in the next day or two. The absence of a batter who has played with confidence in was never more clearly demonstrated than when Wallace was too ill to play. Then, when the pinch came, he could not be depended on. The bench saying, "Gee, if only Wallace were here." The moral effect of a sure batter is worth a whole lot to a team.

Steve Griffin, of Danville, has ideas about setting a team into winning shape. He says that he will draw the Richmond team and expects to land a batter that can be depended on with in the next day or two. The absence of a batter who has played with confidence in was never more clearly demonstrated than when Wallace was too ill to play. Then, when the pinch came, he could not be depended on. The bench saying, "Gee, if only Wallace were here." The moral effect of a sure batter is worth a whole lot to a team.

Except for the Danville club's standing in the race in the Virginia League is about the closest ever. Three clubs have a margin of three points difference in the percentage and one of the clubs have only fifty-seven points between them. Danville, however, is 129 points ahead of Roanoke, and the way the team is going it seems as if the lead would be held.

A few games either way will put

Charlotte Defeats Greensboro.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Charlotte, N. C., July 11.—In a slug-ging match on Wednesday the local team came off victorious, defeating Greensboro 9 to 4. Hankie was wild and ineffective at the beginning, but later settled down, but the victory is due to the terrific bombardment of his teammates. Dobard secured three hits out of four trials, one of them being good for three bases. Cross also secured a triple, a double and a single. Hummer and Williams got away with two-baggers. Garman's playing at first was the outstanding feature of the day, as he pitched the last inning for Charlotte.

Score:
Charlotte..... 9 3 0 2 3 0 0 4..... R H E
Greensboro..... 2 0 0 1 0 1 0 0..... 4 3 2
Batteries: Hankie, Brasilia and Francis; Walters and Beusse.

New York made a great stab to get first place in the National League yesterday, but Chicago caught the bat and won out by two points. The possibility of three out of a world's series in the East next fall has started the fans to guessing, and the way New York is coming after everything in sight looks good to most of them. If there is a world's series in New York next fall there will be a large delegation to go from Richmond to see the fight.

Charlie Doan's men went after Pittsburgh yesterday afternoon as if there were something at the bottom of the deck. The Champions had an off day, and before the deluge could be stopped eighteen runs had come across the plate.
